

● Moves to reduce traffic accidents. Page 3.

● Most Americans say the odds are against Gretel. Page 24.

Van Diemen

CURACAO

WHITE, RED, ORANGE.

The M

Established

Vol. CXC. No. 28,602

HOBART: 93 Macquarie St. Phone 2 5001 (9 lines).
LAUNCESTON: 70 St. John St. Phone 2 2291 (3 lines).

HOBART: TUE

THE police patrol boat Premier has been painted — a brilliant "police" blue, no less.

★

DELEGATES to the Australian Welding Institute conference now in session in Hobart have a variety of places to visit during their week's stay. An interesting choice for Friday afternoon will be the Hydro-Electric Commission's central workshop or the Cascade Brewery. I wonder which will be the more popular.

★

A VISITOR staying at a Zeehan hotel recently was pleased when Tasmanian apples were placed on his table. Later, at a leading Hobart hotel, he had to ask for an apple. One was supplied, but he was charged 1/6 for it.

★

THE engineer officers on the British freighter Southbank which has visited Hobart for the first time are Australian, Dutch, South African (2). The deck officers are English, the carpenter is Chinese, and the crew consists of Indians and Pakistanis.

★

ILL-FATED TRIP BY GONDWANA

TWO

DOES LED

The owner-skipper of